

Introduction

Our project aim is to help citizen association digitalized their database, social help system and almost all of their communities facilities

Mockup

Wireframe is a process of creating a display framework that is more advanced than sketching. Wireframes usually connect the conceptual structure (information architecture) to the product surface (visual design).

BACK TO TOP

